Only if issue is published on batches, such aop or rolling pass, you should inform from date to generate XML for the article published from this date to the current date.

Then click on OK button.

According to the example, the program will create the file: v:\scielo\serial\rsp\v48n5\PubMed\rsp-v48n5-20160510-20160523.xml, containing articles which have epub date between 20160510 and the current date.
